PROSE FROM THE PREZ:

Well, is winter ever going to get here? The ski operators of North Carolina must be very unhappy by now. Of course I can recall skiing at Sugar Mountain on Thanksgiving Day and on March 31st - but not in the same season.

We had a wonderful trip to Aspen in 1975, and as soon as we could we made plans to go back at the same time in 1976. HOWEVER, we had to cancel our trip because of the lack of snow in Aspen. So guess what, North Carolina got snowstorm after snowstorm that season. I was embarrassed when I had to call my office on two successive Mondays to report that I had been snowed in at Wolf Laurel.

Obviously, skiers in the Southeast need to be flexible. Try to out-guess Mother Nature and get in your skiing. I hope this season won't be like the one during which our recreation at Beech Mountain was playing table hockey or traveling into Boone for indoor ice skating. Our gang has always made the best of whatever situation has been presented. We will have maximum fun if we can continue to be flexible.
