PROSE FROM THE PREZ:

Now we can say that we have had some winter weather. We even had snow in Spartanburg, and it was somewhat embarrassing to have to cancel our January 3rd meeting due to the closing of the Arts Center.

The good news is that some of us have been skiing! If you didn't go on the bus trip to Sugar Mountain on January 12th (shared with Palmetto Ski and Outing Club) you missed a fine day. The usual crowd did not appear on the slopes until afternoon, so our folks had a wonderful time without lift-line waits. It turns out that many people wait for the special Afternoon/Twilight lift tickets. They can then ski from 1 PM till 10 PM, pausing only from 4 to 5 for a break and food while some slope grooming is done.

Don't miss the February meeting. There will be quite a variety of chili for you to sample. Maybe you would like to see if your own creation can be a winner.

We had to go to West Virginia to find snow to ski on the day it dumped in our

You should have been there, it was

CSC RACE REPORT

Carol, Mark, Alison, and Marcy represented our club January 5&6 at Silvercreek, West Virginia. All slopes were open and the skiing was excellent. Carol won a pair of Swany ski gloves for her second in flight slalom finish. Alison and Mark also added points for Spartanburg and we are in 5th place out of 8 clubs in our division. Marcy raced in flight 22 and achieved a qualifying handicap. The next Crescent races are January 26&27 at Beech Mt. and February 9&10 at Sugar Mt. Racers, please contact Mark McCall by the Sunday before each race so you can be placed on the race list.

CLUB RACE REPORT

Once again Sugar Mt. set up a NASTAR race course on Big Red for us and the Greenville Ski Club. Twelve members of our club took their turns through the gates and timers. Although many of us have shaped carving skis it was hard getting a grip on the "Carolina hardpack". The top three women were Karin in first, Marcy second and Elke third. The top three men were Bryan in first, Max second, and Mark third. Also racing were Alison, Bobby Jo, Danny, Pieter, Taylor and Tobias. Silver NASTAR medals were won by Bryan, Max and Mark and Bronze by Pieter and Taylor.

MARCH MINI-SOCIAL

If you're trying to plan ahead, our March mini-social will be on Sunday, March 10th at the usual 6:30 P.M.. You may want to spend the day in Greenville as the Irish Cara Club will be hosting the 7th annual RETURN TO THE GREEN Festival from 1-6 P.M. at the West End Market. Numerous Celtic bands will provide Celtic music for all tastes. Children's activities are always included. Do come hungry for an Irish lunch or Irish pastry dessert. The Irish step-dancers from the Butler School of Dance in Atlanta will be providing several performances in the course of the afternoon as in past years. Door prizes are also given, including a free ticket to Ireland. Some of your favorite beverages will also be available at the event that Sunday and at Connelly's Irish Pub on E. Court Street where we'll have our mini-social. Corned Beef or Shepherd's Pie anyone? Connelly's has an inexpensive menu of Irish and not-so Irish items to go along with your favorite beverage. IT'S CHILI !!

(and I don't mean just the weather)

That's right - it's time once again for our annual chili cookoff. Last year Margaret Fennessey was our big winner. So bring your crock of chili and see if you can out do her this year!

Since it's cold outside let's see if we can make it hot inside. This is Bobby Joe Collins' favorite meeting, so he'll be on hand to help sample, and also to accept a check from our club for the Special Olympics. And because our January meeting was cancelled due to "SNOW" (of all things), we'll also have the Crescent slide show.

Bring your chili and c'mon down to the Arts Center on Thursday, February 7th.
