Telemetry from Taylor

Well, this is my final installment of “Telemetry from Taylor”. I want to thank my board for the great job they’ve done organizing and putting on events and other activities for the club.

Speaking of which, we already have a number of events in the planning stages ready for next year’s board to take over. Among them are a Putt-Putt & dinner outing on April 12th, working Music-On-Main on May 29th, and the Pig Roast, tentatively scheduled for June 14th. A couple of these events take a lot of volunteer work. I ask anyone who can help to please contact the appropriate people as indicated elsewhere in the newsletter.

That’s all I have for now. I’ll see you at the Piedmont Club on April 3rd.

Wristband sellers/ID checkers

Please come and join us.

We'll also have sign-up sheets at the May General Meeting.

Putt-Putt Anyone ?

A Putt-Putt outing has been scheduled for Saturday, April 12th, at Putt-Putt Golf and Games on Reidville Rd. (next to Outback Steakhouse). We will meet at 4:00 p.m., play several rounds of Putt-Putt, then go on to Thai Taste Restaurant for dinner. Thai Taste is at 145 Southport Rd. The club has been to Thai Taste several times, and found it to be a delightful restaurant. Please sign up on April 3rd at the Piedmont Club dinner meeting, or you may e-mail or telephone me.

Also, please make a note that this year's Pig Roast has been tentatively scheduled for June 14th (or possibly the 7th), and Elke has graciously agreed to host it this year. Those who would like to be on the Pig Roast Planning Committee are asked to call or e-mail me. June is only 2 months away, so start planning to join us now, and we hope to have another hugely successful event!

In the meantime, come help us celebrate the return of nice weather—we hope to see you at Putt-Putt!
