From Barbara . . . .

Thank you to Marty and Mike and all the others who brought food and supplies and made our Cinco de Mayo meeting absolutely fantastic.

As we did last year, we're going to abandon the Arts Center for the summer and jump in the water. In July we're heading for the Tyger River behind the home of Herb and Dagmar Lindsay. In July we'll enjoy the pool of David and Sandra Alvarez. Details of the August gathering will be in the next newsletter. We'll enjoy food and fellowship on the patio at On the Water between Lyman and Inman for our minisocial this month.

Mike is in the process of planning a golf outing. Mark has a canoe outing. We have horseback riding in the works. Would you be interested in spearheading a bowling event for our group? What other activities would you like us to plan? Call or email me. The board is planning your year, and we need your input.

Membership "Meeting"
June 10th 6:00 PM
With Herb & Dagmar Lindsay

If you have an inner tube or float, you'll want to bring it so you can enjoy the river. You'll also want to bring towels and a chair. If you haven't seen Herb's trains, you're in for a treat!

Please bring an hors d'oeuvre, a tasty side dish, or a dessert—or all three! The club will furnish fried chicken. Barbara and Mike will coordinate. Please let them know what you're bringing.

Canoe and Camp on the French Broad

Join your Ski Club friends for a weekend outdoors on August 27 and 28. We will meet at our river side camp site south of Asheville. Southern Waterways will provide canoes, vests, paddles and transport us to the put in north of town. This will be easy canoeing with no white water. We will canoe through the beautiful Biltmore Estate property as we return to our camp site at the take out. Our camp site has fire rings and grills so we can cook our evening meal. Cost for the canoeing is $30 per person [less than a lift ticket] and camping is $7 per person. Exact meeting time and location TBA. Sign up at Club meeting or call Mark McCall 828 859-5500. P.S. Tim Walker with Outdoor Exposure in Asheville is helping with arrangements for this outing. His store sells ski equipment, camping and hiking supplies and he will give 15% percent discount on store purchases to Ski Club members.
